Afternoon Service Project activities for the ELCA

National Day of Service – “God’s Work, Our Hands.”

Today is the beginning of Care-A-Lot Month, when we will be focusing on helping Care-A-Lot Preschool prepare for the fall.

Currently, we are looking for looking for an Assistant Teacher, as well as more new students. If you can, take a flyer from the table in the Narthex and hang it up in a local business. Contact Care-A-Lot Lead Teacher, Linda Reinbold at 484-894-0585 for more information.

Care-A-Lot has a Wish List of items which Care-A-Lot students will need during the coming school year that you can donate. Hopefully, we can fill our window sills, just as we do for our local food pantries. The colorful bin is filled with items to kick off a very worthwhile project for children in our community. Among the items needed are:

- 4 packages of 5 ounce paper cups, 100/pack
- 2 large packs of white napkins
- 2 packages of non-coated lightweight paper plates, store brand, for crafts
- 1 book of first class postage stamps
- 5 bottles of hand sanitizer
